The Taiwan Stock Exchange hosted the ‘Road to the Innovation Board’, Linked Frontier Enterprises with international market

The “Road to the Innovation Board Forum” hosted by the Taiwan Stock Exchange(TWSE), was held in Taipei on February 10. The event brought together management teams from numerous Emerging Stock Market companies and public offering companies to discuss strategic options for entering the capital market in the future. During the forum, the TWSE shared insights on the Taiwan Innovation Board as part of national policies, highlighting its positioning for frontier enterprises, as well as ongoing institutional reforms. In-depth exchanges were conducted with participating companies.
